Bolshevism Is Sweeping Westward

WOUNDED MEMBERS OF THE RAINBOW DIVISION TO WELCOME COMRADES

Columbus, March 26.—Ohio boys who fought with the famous Rainbow division in France and were sent home because they lost legs or arms in battle, will form a committee to go to the Atlantic seaboard to welcome the Rainbows home, Monday, according to plans of legislative leaders.

Representative Crabbe, of Madison county, whose brother was in the rainbow division and was killed in action, is behind a joint resolution to so honor the Ohio wounded.

One of the four regiments of infantry comprising the Rainbow division is the old Fourth Ohio, now the 166th infantry.

A state wide celebration is being planned for this regiment when it comes home. Brigadier General John C. Speaks has been appointed grand marshal and will organize a big parade in Columbus.

Gov. Cox will be asked to declare a state-wide holiday because every county in Ohio is represented in the membership of the 166th. Col. Ben Hough of Delaware, who commands the 166th, will be asked to parade his men in their war togs.

BLOODY STREET FIGHTING GOING ON IN BUDAPEST

Berlin, March 25.—Bloody street fighting between communists and anti-Bolsheviks in Budapest was reported by travelers from that city.

The streets were being swept by machine gun fire and the number of casualties was said to be high. The communist guards were being directed by Hungarian soldiers returning from Russia.

Travelers have been forbidden to leave Budapest, but several slipped past the guard before the blockade was strictly enforced.

The nervous tension in the Hungarian capital has been increased by the clashes between the rival factions, it is said.

The communists position apparently has not been seriously threatened by the opposition. A number of wealthy aristocrats are said to have pledged their support of the communists.

The British and French missions were reported to be held prisoners, but to be safe. The new coalition cabinet is extending its organization throughout the provinces and towns.

The success of the Hungarian Soviet revolution made the Spartacists here restless. The Independent Socialists still oppose another armed uprising in Germany, however, and the disagreement threatens to disrupt the Central Soviet.

The press and public are condemning Gen. Ludendorff's militaristic utterances, fearing a reaction.

HEALTH BILL IS ADOPTED BY A LARGE MAJORITY

Columbus, Ohio, March 26.—Carrying the endorsement of labor, manufacturer, church and social organizations and numerous other societies and organizations, the Hughes public health bill was passed by the House yesterday by a vote of 80 to 14.

The bill, drawn by the state department of health after a comprehensive study of health laws of every state, provides for the creation of not more than 102 districts, composed of cities of more than 25,000 population and counties outside of cities, at the head of which will be a health commissioner and nurse. Counties may combine with cities or counties may combine with each other.

The commissioner and nurse must give their full time to the work. At present there are more than 2,100 health districts in the state.

The bill is expected to pass the senate.

BOLSHEVIK LINES PIERCED ON FRONT OF THIRTY MILES

London, March 26.—Admiral Kolchak, advancing forty miles along the right of the Kama in the Omsk region pierced the Bolshevik lines on a front of thirty miles, near Ossa and Okhansk, according to advices received here today.

On the Archangel front the allies began an offensive Sunday between Onega and Obozerskaya, but failed to make progress. On the Pineza front the Bolsheviks advanced southward, although their losses were heavy.

War minister Trotsky has ordered mobilization of the Neva torpedo division of the Soviet Navy, a dispatch from Helsingfors reported. Two dreadnaughts also were ordered to Kronstadt but were unable to proceed owing to the bad condition of their engines.

GROOM TOO BUSY TO GET MARRIED

Dayton, March 26.—Pretty little Petu Robinson, adopted daughter of John Robinson, circus owner, and Sergeant Samuel A. Aiken, stationed at McCook field, are having their troubles in trying to get married. Saturday morning they secured a license to wed, but could get no local pastor to perform the ceremony during Lent. Miss Robinson bid her fiancé a hasty good-bye and made a trip to Cincinnati to secure Archbishop Moeller's consent to the nuptials.

After she was awarded a special dispensation Miss Robinson returned to Dayton and her husband-to-be, only to find that authorities at McCook field would not grant him a day off. As she had to leave Sunday night to join the circus, the couple postponed the ceremony until the groom could secure a leave of absence to attend his own wedding.

BRITISH TROOPS ARE SENT TO OCCUPY ASSOMAN

London, March 26.—British troops from the Sudan have been sent to occupy Assoman, where the great Nile dam is located, advices to a news agency from Egypt stated today.

Troops are now widely distributed through the provinces. War Minister Churchill, addressing the house of commons late yesterday said the whole of Egypt is now virtually in a state of insurrection. He declared this is one of the conditions which necessitates maintaining a large British force under arms at present.

SEVENTY PERSONS SHOT IN BUDAPEST

Paris, March 26.—Seventy persons in Budapest have been shot for plundering and other offenses, according to reports received from that city today.

Sympathetic demonstrations were said to have occurred in Vienna. Unconfirmed reports have been received that a bolshevik uprising has been scheduled there for April.

CZECH FORCES TAKE THE CITY OF RAAB

Basle, March 26.—Czech forces have occupied the important city of Raab, on the Danube, only 67 miles northwest of Budapest, according to a Vienna dispatch to the Frankfurter Zeitung.

The red army is being formed in Hungary to disarm the bourgeoisie, a Budapest dispatch reported. Alexander Wexler, former Hungarian premier, is said to have been arrested. All foreigners, including Austrians are being interned.

The revolutionary government is now firmly established. The workers councils exercising a proletarian dictatorship and has announced that elections to the national assembly have been postponed.

Fritz Adler, Austrian socialist leader, has sent a message to Budapest announcing the readiness of Austrian workers to join the bolshevik movement if food can be obtained elsewhere than from the entente.

CHILDREN RIDE TO DEATH ON TOY WAGON

Muskegon, Mich., March 25.—Marvin Marie, three, and Albert Rosenbaum, seven, rode to their death here last night in a toy wagon, which shot down a steep incline and landed in front of a fast moving train.

REPUBLICAN WOMEN OFFICIALLY ENTER NATIONAL POLITICS

The recent establishment of a headquarters in Washington by the Republican women's national executive committee marked the entry of women officially in national politics.

Scene in headquarters just established in Washington by Republican women's national executive committee, above, and Miss Mary Stewart, secretary of women's committee of Republican congressional committee.

MEZZANINE FLOOR COLLAPSES AND A DOZEN ARE INJURED

Philadelphia, March 26.—More than a dozen persons were injured, none seriously when the Mezzanine balcony of Darlington's Department store, in the heart of the downtown shopping district collapsed under the weight of scores of girls seeking employment today.

Panic reigned in the store, well-filled with shoppers when the balcony, with a tremendous crash, mingled with screams, gave way. Many shoppers fainted and women became hysterical as they were showered with glass and splinters.

Fire engines, ambulances and patrols rushed to the store and attracted great masses of people who hampered the rescue work of the red cross.

SENATE TO BEGIN WORK ON THE OHIO TAXATION MUDDLE

Columbus, March 26.—The senate this afternoon will take the first step to relieve Ohio's taxation muddle. This will come on the vote on the Parrett bill, introduced late yesterday, which would allow voters of counties, townships and municipalities to vote at a special election May 28, whether or not they want to raise a levy for temporary relief outside limitations of the Smith one percent law. This bill would relieve local units of government until the end of 1919 at which time the permanent taxation program of the joint taxation committee, submitted to the senate late yesterday, would go into effect.

Two bills carrying out the permanent program were introduced yesterday. One would give the tax commission the power to compel the reappraisal of property in counties where it is thought that the appraisements have been too low. The other would provide a comprehensive inheritance tax.

A constitutional amendment providing classification of property for taxation was introduced in the senate yesterday. This also calls for a vote on the amendment on May 28. The taxation committee proposed that the legislature recess when it has finished up present business until after the voters have given their decision on classification of property.

CZECHO-SLOVAKS ARE MOBILIZING

Copenhagen, March 26.—The Czechoslovaks are mobilizing an army at Ostrau 150 miles north of Budapest to march against the Hungarians, a Vienna dispatch reported today. The army will be commanded by the Italian General Piccini.

URGE IMMEDIATE PEACE WITH THE SETTLEMENT OF DETAILS LEFT IN HANDS OF THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Paris, March 26.—Immediate peace along broad lines, with settlement of details afterward through the league of nations, was being urged today by many delegates, who have been galvanized into action by the westward spread of bolshevism.

The next step it was pointed out would be to furnish concrete support of the new or enlarged nations of central Europe, whose security the allies are in honor bound to maintain. The belief was expressed that expeditionary forces will not be necessary or advisable.

Large national armies for these nations, however, probably partly of ficers, trained, equipped and provisioned by the allies, including the United States were suggested as a possible solution of the problem of maintaining peace in that region.

The situation in Hungary, Russia, Ukraine, and Bulgaria was likened to a gigantic powder magazine, already ablaze. America, it is felt, will be unable to withdraw her support until danger of the fire reaching the explosive has passed.

Germany's threat to refuse to sign the peace treaty is not troubling the conferees. French declare it matters little whether she signs or not, as the present government is wobbling. The Germans would not honor their own signature, anyway, it was declared, unless the allies are capable of enforcing the terms.

MARTIAL LAW IS PROCLAIMED IN SPAIN

Madrid, March 26.—Martial law was proclaimed at 5 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Constitutional guarantees have been suspended throughout Spain.

The workmen of Barcelona declared a general strike at noon yesterday because of the continued detention of mobilized strikers who were arrested during recent strikes in that city.

Banks and stores were reported to be closed and there was no traffic in the streets of the city. The city authorities took measures to provision Barcelona and assumed control of means of communication with Madrid.

Premier Romanones, who had intended to resign, has declared that he considers it to be his duty to remain in office.

GIANT AIRPLANE BADLY WRECKED

Bayonne, N. J., March 26.—The giant hydro-airplane in which Captain Hugo Sunstedt plans to fly across the Atlantic was partially wrecked last night when it dropped 400 feet into Newark Bay.

Piloted by Commander Severson, a Russian naval aviator, and Second Lieutenant Baker, a United States army aviation student, the hydroplane failed to come out of a spiral attempted when the aviators started to land after a flight of several miles.

Several days will be required to rebuild damaged parts.

QUICK SERVICE THIS
Columbus, March 26.—Here's real service. Falling 20 feet from rear stairway landing, J. A. Patton landed on top of ambulance. He was placed inside and rushed to hospital. Injuries slight.

HUNGARIAN REVOLT WILL NOT AFFECT U. S. DEMOBILIZATION

Chillicothe, O., March 26.—A report that the demobilization of troops at Camp Sherman would cease pending the outcome of the revolt in Hungary spread through camp yesterday and authorities were kept busy denying any such order had been received from the War Department.

The report gained circulation throughout the state and parents of men in camp kept telephone wires busy satisfying themselves there was nothing to the report.

The next three weeks will see the arrival of approximately 17,000 troops who are booked to be sent to Camp Sherman for discharge. Most of the men will be members of the various organizations of the Thirty-seventh Division. A number of casual companies and four or five contingents of wounded men are included in the number.

Upon advice received from the War Department General Edwin F. Glenn issued orders that hereafter discharged men will be permitted to retain their complete uniforms. Heretofore men may retain a blouse, breeches, fringed labels and instructed to return the uniforms to the Government at the expiration of six months. The parts of the uniform which discharged men may retain are blouse, breeches, shirt, leggings, shoes and hat. All other equipment must be turned in prior to discharge.

ALLIES MUST ACT WITH HASTE IF THE DELUGE OF RADICALISM IS STOPPED

BY RUDOLPH KOMMER
United Press Staff Correspondent
(Copyright 1919, by The United Press)
Berne, March 26.—The allies must act immediately if the westward flood of bolshevism is to be dammed, Prince Windisch-Graetz, Hungarian statesman and chief advisor of Emperor Karl during the last year of the dual monarchy, told the United Press today.

The Prince declared that Rumania and eastern Galicia are still forming a barrier against the deluge of radicalism, but that this must be strengthened or it can not hold.

"What is happening in Hungary has been foretold by every Hungarian politician during the last six months," said Windisch-Graetz.

"Unfortunately, the entente statesmen did not believe us. Most of them thought the talk of the danger of bolshevism was just some new instrument of German propaganda to undo or reduce the allied victory. Others believed bolshevism to be a sort of political gripe which would attack only defeated countries. It is tragical that the visionary words of Lord Milner last September were not listened to."

"The same element which have now openly usurped power in Budapest overthrew me and my colleagues last autumn. At that they have not felt strong enough to appear at the forefront in European politics, and have used Count Karolyi as their representative and standard bearer. From the first days of his rule, however, he was a helpless puppet in bolshevist hands. Day by day he was forced more to the left (radicalism)."

Asked if the present situation left any hope of checking the spread of Bolshevism, the Prince replied:

"The communist organization in Hungary today is far from being complete. Rumania and eastern Galicia are still forming a dam between the bolshevist flood, and western Europe. How strong or weak this dam is only the entente authorities can say. At any rate, if anything is done, it should be done at once. Bolshevism, like time and tide, waits for no man."

"Neither the peasants nor the workers of Hungary are really communistic. A small group within the socialists has overwhelmed the party. The new dictatorship isn't a dictatorship of the proletariat but a dictatorship of despair."

"Just as the middle classes joined Karolyi, thinking he could save Hungary from Czechoslovak, Rumanian and Serbian imperialism, the same middle classes today are embracing Bolshevism—and turning from Paris to Moscow."

NEW HUNGARIAN GOVERNMENT ISSUES A PROCLAMATION

Zurich, March 26.—The new Hungarian government has issued the following decrees, according to a dispatch received from Budapest today:

The public will not be permitted on the streets between seven p. m. and 6 a. m.

Theaters and other places of amusement will be closed. Sale of liquor is prohibited. Restaurants will close at 7 p. m.

Bank deposits will be confiscated. Superfluous lodgings and flats will be seized for the accommodation of those poorly housed.

Departure from Budapest is prohibited except by special permission.

FORMER HUNGARIAN GOVERNMENT HEAD REPORTED SHOT

London, March 26.—A news agency dispatch from Prague today said reports had been received there that Count Karolyi, former head of the Hungarian government has been assassinated.

A dispatch to the News from Vienna said Karolyi had been arrested by the communists.

BURTON DEFENDS THE LEAGUE IN DEBATE

New York, March 26.—Senator Theodore E. Burton, of Ohio, president of the League of Nations Union, speaking in debate last night in the chamber of commerce, Brooklyn, on the proposed league, said if there is not a concert of action among nations which believe in peace, indications already point to another terrific struggle.

"Germany," he added, "is receiving her returning soldiers with acclaim, and is pointing out that the time will come when she will come into her own again and succeed where she failed before."

DEVALERA CAN NOT ACCEPT RECEPTION

Dublin, March 26.—Professor Edward DeValera, head of the Irish Republic, has announced he cannot accept the public reception planned for him here today.

Recent reports from Dublin said that DeValera, who has been in hiding since his escape from Lincoln, prison would appear in Dublin today to take over his duties as head of the new Irish government.

BARRING OF ALIEN LABOR CONSIDERED

Paris, March 26.—An American amendment to protect nations against the influx of foreign labor was adopted yesterday by the league of nations commission. It affirms the right of any country in the league to control matters solely within domestic jurisdiction.

Another important amendment to the league covenant affects Article VIII, which empowers the executive council to formulate a plan for the reduction of armaments. The language of the article is altered so as to limit the powers of the council to a simple recommendation to the governments affected.

As framed, the amendment will be an appendix to the article pledging members of the league to respect and prevent external aggression against territorial integrity and existing political independence of members.

Mention of the Monroe doctrine by name is avoided purposely.

Other changes in the covenant made at last night's meeting and which are regarded by the American delegates of great importance were calculated to meet suggestions and objections emanating from America. They include a substitute for the phrase, "states members of the league" in Article X and elsewhere in the covenant, thus meeting objections that the latter term created membership.

FAILS TO ACCEPT

Vienna, March 26.—Premier Lenine in a wireless message to the Hungarian soviet government failed to accept formally the latter's offer of a military alliance, a Budapest dispatch reported today.

We will inform you of our decision at the third communistic congress in Moscow, as soon as possible "Lenine declared.

VIOLATORS OF SIDE WALK ORDINANCE ARE GIVEN WARNING

Charges for violation of the sidewalk display ordinance by displaying goods on the sidewalk hung over the heads of three Xenia grocers Tuesday when it was found that these merchants had started to use the sidewalks for display purposes.

All three merchants were notified that if the goods were not removed at once such action would be taken against them. The use of the sidewalks in this manner is in violation of the new sidewalk display ordinance which is being tested out by H. E. Schmidt in the courts at the present time.

WOMAN CHARGED WITH RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS

Mrs. Mary Snorbus of Yellow Springs, who was bound over to the probate court by the mayor of Yellow Springs on a charge of receiving stolen property, entered a plea of not guilty before Judge J. C. Marshall Tuesday afternoon. Her trial was set for April 10, at 9 o'clock, and she furnished $200 bond for her appearance.

Several weeks ago three young high school boys of Yellow Springs were arrested and taken before the juvenile court on a charge of stealing chickens. They are said to have confessed that they sold the stolen chickens to Mrs. Snorbus, to whose home they took them at night.

MRS. SCHELL AND SON GOING TO CALIFORNIA

Mrs. F. J. H. Schell and her son Frederick are planning a trip to California where they will spend the greater part of the spring and summer. They expect to start for the west next Monday, and will go to Long Beach, where they will visit Mrs. Schell's mother, Mrs. Rebecca Taylor. Mrs. Schell has five brothers and one sister in California, at Los Angeles and Long Beach, and she is looking forward with a great deal of pleasure, to the family reunion. She will meet one brother whom she has not seen for twenty years.

ENTERTAIN FOR MISS GEYER'S GUESTS

A small company of girls was entertained at dinner Tuesday evening by Miss Eleanor Carr, for the pleasure of Miss Andrada and Miss Skoog, college friends of Miss Mary K. Geyer. A big bowl of jollies gave a bright touch of spring to the dinner table, and the favors were jaunty little spring hats.

Miss Carr had invited a number of young men to call after dinner, to meet the girls, and the evening was spent very merrily. Miss Andrada, Miss Skoog and Miss Geyer returned to Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware, Wednesday morning.

Mrs. John Swartz of Granville, is visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Babb of East Second street.

High School Notes

A "Mock Trial" was one of the chief attractions of the school Tuesday. The case was that of the State of Ohio vs. Currie and Snodgrass on the charge of stealing jam on County, on grounds of stealing jam on night of Wednesday, March 12, 1919. The trial took place in the library and Earl Hartsock sat at a desk on the platform and made a very stately judge. Walker Whittington acted as deputy sheriff. The witnesses for the defendant were, Paul Satterfield, Marion Eyer, Alfred Arnold, Philip Kyle and Gene Benbow. Witnesses for the plaintiff were Frank Short, Mildred Galloway, Julia Wolf, Celia Moore and Robert Hurley. Mary Alexander, clerk of courts, swore in the witnesses and asked them not to tell the truth, nothing like the truth. Lawyers for the defense were, Stewart Macaulay, Robert Ralls and Heber Tullis. For the plaintiff, Wendell Morgan, Clarence Norris and Jack Eavey. Macaulay and Eavey did most of the cross questioning, greatly confusing the witnesses and causing them to contradict their own statements to the amusement of the court. The 12 jurors were Doris Flynn, Lois Gartrell, Hazel Evans, Flora Beam, Mary Willett, Alfred Casad, Harold Van Pelt, Louise Clark, Anna McCormick, Aloysis Norckauer, Lois Hutchison and Edith Willett. The court adjourned for dinner at 11:40 and convened at 2:30 to finish the case. The decision of the jury was given by Alfred Casad. They decided that the defendants, Currie and Snodgrass, were not guilty. The court stenographers were Pauline Beal and Mary Julia Whittington and Katherine Hollencamp newspaper reporter. Grade cards went out Tuesday evening for the month of March. Thirteen Seniors, eight Juniors, twelve Sophomores and fifteen Freshmen, 48 in all, made an average grade of "E" in all their subjects for the school month of March.

Miss Coffin was gladly welcomed back by her classes Monday. She has been at her home in Marblehead two months on account of the illness of her father. Miss Haynes supplied for Miss Coffin and the classes have been divided and we are glad Miss Haynes is going to still have classes. Miss McBane is suffering from a severe cold and we hope she recovers soon and is back in her usual place. The Juniors and Seniors in their separate English classes are debating on immigration problems. We had several visitors Tuesday: Marshall Best, Dick Nisbet and Walter Jobe, students of Denison, who are home for spring vacation, attended the "Mock Trial." Mary Katherine Geyer and her two guests, Miss Skoog and Miss Andrade visited two afternoon classes. Miss Andrade gave interesting talks in both classes, telling of customs of France and described her trip across. Miss Geyer and her guests are students at O. W. U.

RED CROSS DOG AND PUPPIES ARE SEEN IN XENIA

A female dog, of the species now generally known as "Red Cross Dog," and her three pups, attracted the attention of people on the platform of the Pennsylvania railroad station Tuesday where they were being transferred.

The pups were confined in a screened-in box but the mother was allowed to take the air outside of her shipping box prison. The owner of the interesting canines is taking them to his home.

The Red Cross dogs are possessed of unusual scent and rare intelligence. They were known before the war as "German Police Dogs" for although they originated in Alsace they were generally used by the German police as police dogs. Their uncanny scent and intelligence rendered them invaluable in this service. At the beginning of the war the dogs were used by the military and they paved their way to their new name by their excellent work for the Red Cross. In this capacity the dogs showed wonderful intelligence in discriminating between the dead and wounded on the battle fields and on finding the latter they would carry back a piece of their clothing and then lead a stretcher bearer to the scene. They were also invaluable as messenger carriers for the military. According to the owner of the dogs they are now being used extensively by the New York police department. In the district where the patrolmen cover a large area they are accompanied by one of these dogs. When the officer sees a person he suspects he sends the dog to investigate. If ordered to bring the suspect back the will do so by either one way or the other. If the person in question does not resist the dog shows no violence, but in cases of resistance the animal will first snap at his prisoner and this falling will leap at his head, catching the back of the neck in the teeth and by sudden lurch of the front feet into the small of the back of his victim will throw him on the ground and hold him until help comes. Ordinarily the dogs are very tame and they were petted by the interested crowd of onlookers about the station.

DRAFT RECORDS ARE READY FOR SHIPMENT

Eight big packing cases will carry the selective service records from Greene county to Washington. The cases are all packed and ready to be sent on when definite instructions regarding shipment are received by Clerk George Galloway, of the Local Draft Board. Instructions were received some time ago to finish up the work and have the records ready to ship by March 31. They will be sent to the adjutant general, Selective Service Department.

EARL DODDS, JR., HAD STRANGE ILLNESS

Earl Dodds, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dodds, of Keene, N. H., formerly of this city, is recovering from a serious illness which resembled the so-called "sleeping sickness," which has followed the influenza epidemic in some localities. Physicians did not diagnose the lad's case. He slept steadily for a week, then roused at intervals for several days, and finally came out of his lethargy entirely. He is now up and about. The boy's case puzzled medical men. He was severely ill of influenza in October, but recovered and had been going to school for two months, when he was stricken.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

At R. E. Bryson's farm yesterday some of our workmen enjoyed some fine trap shooting. The scores out of 30 birds were: George Grotten-dick 16; Lew Anderson 15; William Icen-hour 22; George Fisher 16; W. H. Grotten-dick 17; Ben Jones 9; E. F. Ludlow 4; Tom Mason 8; Gail Skinner 10; John Osterly 9; R. E. Bryson 9.

Forest Sutton, the dairyman's horse ran away when it was started suddenly yesterday. The animal was caught by George Spencer.

Mr. S. H. Deacon has been confined to his house by illness for several days past.

WHAT DOES THE U. S. SEN- ATE'S "ADVICE" ABOUT TREATIES AMOUNT TO?

One of the contentions on the part of some members of the United States Senate, as an excuse for looking askance on the proposed League of Nations, which it is claimed will be a part of the treaties to be made at Paris, is that President Wilson did not ask the "advice" of the Senate while the covenants of this League were being formulated. This objection was well put by Senator Lodge at the close of his reply to Doctor Lowell in the Boston debate. He said:

If the President had laid that draft
before the Senate, as those other Presidents have done; if he had said to the Senate: "I submit this draft to you for your advice, I hope for your approval, and for such suggestions as you may have to make," he would have had the amendments laid before him to present to the Peace Conference in Paris. The battle would have been more than half won by the mere submission.

He not only did not lay it before the constitutional body which is entitled to advise him, but he does not call the Senate together now to consider it. If they want to know in Paris what amendments were required, call together the constitutional advisers of the President and the amendments will be drafted and sent.

It is very easy to understand and sympathize with this position. It is wholly human for the Senators, who are intrusted by the constitution with the duty of "advising and consenting"
in the tremendous business of treaty-making, to feel that the President, while framing a pact of such unparalleled importance as the constitution of a "League of Nations" which we all hope will last till the millennium and possibly help to hasten its arrival, should have diligently and continuously—if at all feasible—
sought their "advice."

The Public Ledger calls attention to an interesting debate that occurred in this same Senate on a very similar subject in 1906 between Senator Spooner, the Republican spokesman, and Senator Bacon, the Democratic champion. Theodore Roosevelt, a Republican, was then President. He had been managing our foreign relations—notably in the matters of Panama and Santo Domingo with his usual initiative energy and not too constant a consultation of the Senate.
This independent course by the then Executive had been criticized, and the debate in question was on the pertinence and propriety of the criticism.

Senator Spooner, the Republican representative, took the ground that the President was perfectly right to play a lone hand, saying:

From the foundation of the government it has been conceded in practice and in theory that the constitution vests the power of negotiation and the various phases—and they are multifarious—of the conduct of our foreign relations exclusively in the President.
The President is so supreme under the constitution in the matter of treaties, excluding only the Senate's ratification, that he may negotiate a treaty, he may send it to the Senate, it may receive by way of "advice and consent" the unanimous judgment of the Senate that it is in the highest degree for public interest, yet the President is as free when it is sent back to the White House with the resolution of ratification attached to put it in his desk never again to see the light of day as he was free to determine in the first instance whether he would or would not negotiate it.

There is much more of this sort of thing that could be quoted. Senator Bacon argued that "advice" meant advising while the treaty was in process of being negotiated. Senator Spooner, held that while, of course, the Senate had as much right as anybody to "advise" the President by resolution or otherwise at any time, the President need pay no attention to that "advice." So far as official "advice" went, "until the President is through,
the Senate's function does not begin."
It may be a matter of minor interest that Senator Lodge seems to have been present at this interesting debate and to have intervened in support of Senator Spooner. The next day the Massachusetts Senator spoke for himself, and referred in friendly fashion to Senator Spooner's effort by saying that he quite realized that "after the manner in which he has dealt with these questions anything that I may say is in great danger of being an anti-climax."

ONE YEAR AGO AND NOW.

Whatever may be the discouragements that grow out of the fact that making peace is by no means an easy matter, the worst pessimist should become at once the happiest of optimists if he will contrast these days of March, 1919, with the terrible days of March, 1918, especially the days of the week beginning the 21st.
For it was just a year ago that the Germans launched their great offensive that took them once more to the Marne, rolled back the English in Flanders and bombarded Paris with a long-range gun, and so demoralized
the Allies, including ourselves, that in all the capitals, not excepting Washington, it was currently rumored that the Germans "would be in Paris by Easter" and that civilization was actually faced with possible victory for the Huns.

For some time there was so little to lessen the gloom that the German boasts and the German claims of victory and the ever-active German propaganda seemed to have carried the day everywhere. The Kaiser went to his advanced lines, and, watching the earlier attacks on Chateau Thierry, uttered his famous claims of victory,
predicting that Germany would win everything and would dictate no soft peace but one which would give Germany all that she demanded. Luden-dorff was equally confident, and the war lords in Berlin, with victory in sight, were announcing to the world just how all the powers, including America, were to be punished and turned into vassals of Germany. This went on for a week or more, when the tide slowly turned and, bit by bit, the new resources of America, first on the Marne and then in the Verdun section on the Meuse, and in the Argonne, brought about the glorious days of mid-July and the German bladder was pricked for all time.

Such an amazing overturn not even the most hopeful or the wisest of men among the Allies foresaw a year ago.
Then everything was problematical, with Germany given the benefit of the doubt; but today the world has every cause for an abiding optimism, since what seemed the impossible at the equinox last year is now the accomplished fact.

Too Much Room.

Willie had been wearing underwear that was too small for him. As he was growing rapidly his mother bought garments over-sized, expecting him to fill them before they wore out.
Willie, when put inside the newly-purchased underwear, shrugged his shoulders and, seemingly discontented with his lot, remarked: "Ma, I feel awfully lonesome in this shirt."

THE LAST WORD IN AFTERNOON FROCKS

This alluring frock of blue charmeuse with a Joffre blue chiffon blouse in jet is the last word in fashions or as the French would say, "Le Dernier Cri." The decorative ornaments suspended from the shoulders adds the finishing touch.

THE PROMOTER'S WIFE

BY JANE PHELPS.

BARBARA FINDS PROOF OF CHECK GIVEN NEIL BY BLANCHE ORTON.

CHAPTER XLV.

One rainy morning about a week after Mrs. Orton's dinner party, I went down-town to do some shopping. Neil had been so disgruntled and moody, that I thought I would surprise him by making a visit to his office. I had hardly been able to refrain from questioning him more at length, about his actions at the dinner, but had compelled myself to wait.

I still held firmly to the idea that it was my right to know of all that concerned him, even though, after all these years, he still refused to recognize it as my right. But early impressions are very strong. At home father and mother had discussed the slightest matters pertaining to everything concerning his business, as well as the home.

Neil was out. I seated myself in his private office before the long, mahogany table. I opened the drawer, and idly turned over the papers.
Should I clear it out for him while
I waited?

I decided that I would. On a blotter, underneath a lot of papers, was the fac-simile of a check faintly outlined. I recalled that I had read that, by holding a blotter in front of a mirror, one was enabled to decipher the faintest characters, with ease. I had no thought of spying—no slightest idea that I should find anything save the ordinary check which Neil had given me for household expenses. It was the curious act such as is often done because of some simple reason.

To my surprise, the characters stood out in bold relief. But I fairly gasped when I realized that the check was for a fairly large amount,
and that it was signed by Blanche Orton! I looked at the date, and it struck me as coincident with the visit of that horrid Mr. Scott. I looked at my engagement book, and saw it was a few days after I had entertained him at dinner.

Just why I should have connected the two things, I cannot tell. Why seeing the check should have reminded me of Mr. Scott, I have never understood. But I soon forgot the fact in my desire to know why Blanche Orton should have given Neil such a check, and what it had been given for. Of course it brought to mind our talk in the car, the night of her dinner, also their argument.
This check might have been the subject of their conversation, the topic upon which they so evidently disagreed? Yet, it was dated so long before.

I laid the blotter on top of the table. Then I put all the other papers back in the drawer, and waited for Neil. I had come to the office on impulse. He had not looked well for some days. Really not since the night of the dinner. He was anxious about something, but gave me either sharp or evasive answers
when I questioned him.

More and more was it borne in upon me that there was something wrong. If we were living beyond our means, we must retrench. It might be unpleasant, but it was far preferable to having Neil worried and cross.

I felt quite the helpful wife as I planned that I would tell him of the many ways in which we could economize without it becoming too much of a hardship. Then I glanced around at his handsome, expensively furnished office, it seemed to me that here, too, might be retrenchment. Surely, he had more room than was necessary? His rent must be enormous. I would also suggest that to him. He was so careless of money that it probably had not occurred to him.

I had noted, too, that the girls—
his stenographers—were not particularly busy. Perhaps he could get along with one less. That blond one with the highly-rouged cheeks was reading a novel. He might dispense with her.

So I planned and waited. But always my thoughts veered back to the blotter, and the meaning of that large check drawn by Blanche Orton
to my husband's order.

To-morrow—Neil Forbids Barbara
to Visit His Office Again.

Suppose that for one cent you could insure the quality of your cake, biscuits,
etc., wouldn't that be real economy?

Well, one cent is about the difference in the cost of a whole cake or a pan of biscuits made with Royal Baking Powder
as compared with cheaper baking powders made from alum or phosphate—a trifle, indeed, to insure the quality and wholesomeness of your baking.

SCHOOL GIRL TELLS OTHERS

How They Can Find Relief From Periodic Sufferings.

Nashua, N. H.—“I am nineteen years old and every month for two years I had such pains that I would often faint and have to leave school. I had such pain I did not know what to do with myself and tried so many remedies that were of no use. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspapers and decided to try it, and that is how I found relief from pain and feel so much better than I used to. When I hear of any girl suffering as I did I tell them how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me.”—DELINA MARTIN, 29 Bowers St., Nashua, N. H.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, therefore is a perfectly safe remedy to give your daughter, who suffers from such painful periods as did Miss Martin.

The reason so many girls write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice, is because from their 40 years experience they have a store of knowledge which is invariably helpful.

RAILWAY FARE THE SAME NOW THAT IT WAS 44 YEARS AGO

Would you believe that it costs you the same to go to Cincinnati via the Pennsylvania Railroad today as it did 44 years ago?

That's rather a long leap, but it is a fact that minus the war tax which is imposed now, the fare is exactly the same as it was in 1875. This fact was disclosed by an examination of an old passenger traffic book, dated April 1, 1875, and kept in the files at the office of the local ticket agent.

According to the book, there is practically no difference in the rates now as compared to those of that early period. The rate to Cincinnati then was $1.95, as it is now, or would be, were there no war tax to add on extra. Rates to other points in Ohio compare about the same with those of the present day.

This does not mean that the rates have not changed during that time, but during all the changes it is coincidental that they should have gotten back to the same level as they were almost a half century ago.

A perusal of the book gives an interesting price comparison with the present day rates.

LATEST PHOTO OF “TIGER” SHOWS HIM RECOVERING FROM ASSASSIN'S ATTACK

Premier Clemenceau of France in his favorite chair.

The above photo of Premier “Tiger” Clemenceau of France was taken about five days after he had been wounded by the assassin, Emile Cottin. The premier insisted on continuing his peace conference activities after the shooting and his physicians were forced to order him to remain quiet for a few days until all danger from the bullet wounds in his neck and chest was past.

THE HOME COMFORTABLE

Here are a few suggestions that I hope will help you. Sew a strip of felt around the arm of your sewing machine and use this to stick in the pins or needles that you need while sewing or, that you take out of your sewing. When you put a clean blouse away try putting a sheet of tissue paper between each one. This will keep them fresh looking.

If you wish to serve your roast cold it should be wrapped in a piece of clean cheese cloth. This prevents its drying or the loss of flavor. Never use hot water or soap to wash linens. Milk and water half and half is the only thing to use. This gives it a glossy look. When paint has stuck to glass it can be removed with a little hot vinegar.

Silver can be cleaned very easily and well if it is not too bad if done in this way. Take an aluminum kettle, not a pan, put fresh cold water in it and let come to a boil. As soon as it boils put in your silver and boil it a minute, and it will come out as bright and clean as new. This is especially good for cleaning forks or spoons blackened with egg. Keep the silver from touching the bottom of the pan if the flame is very hot and it cannot be used for articles where there is a bit of silver that has seams or that there is danger of its melting.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if you feel Back-achy or Bladder troubles you.—Salts is fine for Kidneys

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

JAMESTOWN

Rev. W. G. Evans has accepted the pastorate of the Trinity Baptist church of Cleveland. Before going to France as a Y. M. C. A. worker, Mr. Evans had a pastorate in Dayton. Mrs. Evans has been at the home of her mother in Jamestown while Mr. Evans was overseas. They will now move to Cleveland, and will be greatly missed by their many friends here.

Mrs. C. H. Jenkins and daughter, Miss Mary, were mid-week shoppers in Xenia.

Mrs. Harry Black is spending several days with relatives in London and Columbus.

Mr. H. L. Buckles has been in Xenia serving on the petit jury which has been in session.

Mrs. Urban Tobin has been visiting in Dayton.

Mrs. Ella Spahr is spending a few days in Xenia.

The series of two weeks meetings at the Church of Christ closed on Sunday evening. The attendance was fine and the interest good throughout. There were sixteen additions to the congregation, and the Bible school about doubled its usual number. Mr. J. A. Carrell the minister is an untiring worker.

Mrs. W. H. Palmer of Xenia, is spending this week in Jamestown with friends and looking after her property interests here.

Bruce, son of Mrs. J. H. Parker, who was a member of the 27th division has arrived from overseas, and is now at Camp Mills, N. Y. However he will probably be discharged from Camp Sherman.

Miss Ivy Glass of Dayton, has been the guest of her brother, Roy Glass and family.

Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Bowers are engaged in moving to Jamestown this week from the farm southwest of Xenia.

Mrs. Mary Sholey with her daughter is spending several days in New Burlington at the home of her grandfather, Mr. W. C. Bales.

Miss Fannie Taylor of Lucasville has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Long.

The Rev. and Mrs. W. G. Evans are moving to Cleveland this week.

Mrs. Ford Latham has been quite ill for the past few days.

Mrs. Will Zeiner has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. George Baldwin and family of Xenia.

Mr. W. W. Johnson the grocer, was in Dayton the last of the week.

Mrs. Atta Johnson visited in Xenia on Friday with her sisters, Mrs. O. E. Bales and Mrs. Vica Cooper.

Mrs. Lisbon Stephens of Delaware, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hill Carpenter, and Mrs. Carpenter accompanied her daughter home for a visit.

R. I. Campion, the evangelist, begins a revival meeting on the 25th at the West Xenia street Baptist church. The Rev. Robert Albaugh of Amelia, a former pastor of the Jamestown church will have charge of the music.

Mr. Albaugh is an able leader of songs and has a host of friends here who will be pleased to meet him again.

Mrs. J. M. Patterson, of Parker, Ind., has been spending a few days with her brother J. H. Sanders who accompanied her to Xenia for a visit at the home of Mr. Clinton Sanders.

Relatives here have just had a message announcing the death of Henry Hussey, the result of influenza. The Hussey family are old time residents of Greene county, but for the past several years, have resided on a farm near Indianapolis. Mrs. Hussey is a member of the well known Reeves family of Jefferson township. Mrs. W. H. Burr is a sister of the deceased.

Mrs. Virginia Smith is still confined to her home suffering from a prolonged cold.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with undigested foods, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without gripping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

DON'T LET A COLD KEEP YOU AT HOME

Dr. King's New Discovery 'almost never fails to' bring quick relief

Small doses once in a while and that throat-tearing, lung-splitting cough soon quiets down. Another dose and a hot bath before jumping into bed, a good sleep, and back to normal in the morning.

Dr. King's New Discovery is well known. For fifty years it's been relieving coughs, colds and bronchial attacks. For fifty years it has been sold by druggists everywhere. A reliable remedy that you yourself or any member of your family can take safely. 60c and $1.20.

Train Those Stubborn Bowels. Help nature take its course, not with a violent, habit-forming purgative, but with gentle but certain and natural-laxative, Dr. King's New Life Pills. Tonic in action, it stimulates the lax bowels. Sold by druggists. 25c.

PROSPERITY OF COUNTRY DEPENDS ON NEW PRICE LEVEL

With spring which always stimulates prices of material, and a statement building, interest is being manifested this year by the proposed builder in prices of material, and a monograph by Irving Fisher, Professor of Political Economy of Yale University, sent out recently by the U. S. Department of Labor, is interesting in this connection.

Prices are the most vital concern in the business man's life at this juncture, and the poignant question is, are prices going up or down? Upon the answer to that question depend the commitments which buyers, merchants and producers will make. If there is to come a long period of sinking prices, men will not and dare not buy except from hand to mouth. Therefore men cannot produce. That means unemployment for labor, disruption of working organizations, loss to capital, deficiency in public revenues, general business stagnation. If, on the other hand, prices as a whole are not going to drop, business can confidently go ahead. The stage is set for prosperity, full production, universal employment, good times. Whether this will come depends on the answer to the question, as to the course of the price level.

Professor Fisher says in part: "At the present time there is a marked halt in production. Industry is slowing down. Unemployment of labor increases. Some industrial concerns are failing to earn profits, and others are suffering the dissipation of their accrued profits, because, even by shutting their plants down, they cannot save certain of their expenses or any of their fixed charges. The government's revenues, dependent as they are upon the national income, may fall short at the very time we need them most. In brief we are threatened with a widespread business depression and from peculiar causes, for the unsound conditions usually preceding a widespread business depression are absent."

"The main reason why business is not going ahead better is that most people expect prices to drop," the Professor adds. This is a question that has been much discussed since the world war caused a fluctuation in prices in every business. He adds: "The merchant is selling but not buying. The manufacturer holds up the purchase of his raw materials. People quote the disparity between present prices and those prevailing before the war, and decide they will not buy much until present prices get down to 'normal.' This general conviction that prices are sure to drop is putting a brake upon the entire machinery of production and distribution. Readjustment waits because we keep on waiting for it. We have waited in vain for over three months. It is interesting to observe that many manufacturers think that prices must come down, including the price of labor; but they are ready to demonstrate to you that their own prices can not come down nor can they pay lower wages. Almost everything they buy somehow costs twice as much as before the war, and their labor is twice as dear. They cannot pay their labor less if labor is to meet the increased cost of living. Now, as a matter of fact, when we investigate almost any individual one of the so-called high prices for industrial products we are likely to find that individually it is not high; that is, it is not high relatively to the rest. Our quarrel is with the general level of prices."

In this paragraph Professor Fisher has touched upon a most interesting phase of the question and one of vital importance locally. He continues: "All prices have risen, but some have risen more, some less, than the average for particular reasons affecting each industry. In some cases an improved organization of both employers and employees has enabled them to combine against the public and take full advantage of the price advance."

"Prices in Europe since the war began have risen more than they have in the United States. The price rise has been less the farther from the seat of hostilities. It was least in Australia and New Zealand. It was next least in the United States, Canada and Japan."

According to Professor Fisher whether the present price level is permanent or merely a temporary inflation is yet a question but he urges that business go along on the present level. "Business men should face the facts," he said. "To talk reverently of 1913-14 prices is to speak in a dead language today. The buyers of the country, since the armistice, have made an unexampled attack upon prices through their waiting attitude, and yet price recessions have been insignificant. The reason is that we are on a new high-price level, which will be found a stubborn reality. Business men are going to find out that the clever man is not the man who waits, but the one who finds out the new price facts and acts accordingly."

ALL CHILDREN LOVE 'SYRUP OF FIGS' FOR LIVER AND BOWELS

Give it when feverish, cross, bilious, for bad breath or sour stomach.

Look at the tongue, Mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative"; they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has direction for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups, plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

STEVE PHILLIPS TELLS ABOUT HIS FAMOUS SLEEPY TOM

Stephen C. Phillips of Washington C. H., for more than generation a familiar figure in the racing world, and who owned Sleepy Tom, when that horse broke the world's pacing record at Chicago back in July, 1879, with a record of 2:12 1-4, was a visitor in Columbus one day this week. He told some interesting stories about that famous horse and how he came to obtain possession of it while calling on Governor Cox who he has long known.

Most every year, Phillips, who is well known to local horsemen, bobs up at the Clark county fair ground track about fair time and has something good to race. Phillips is an uncle of Steve Phillips who has started horses at the local track and will start them again this year. He formerly lived in Xenia and was sheriff of Fayette county for some years.

In part the story is as follows:
"I really do not know whether it would do to tell just how I came to own Sleepy Tom," said the veteran horseman, who despite his age (he admits he was on earth as far back as 1846 and must be at least 73) still drives on the race track occasionally. "One day in 1876 two young men who owned Sleepy Tom came to Waynesville, Warren county, where I was living at the time, with the horse, which then no one seemed to suspect contained world-beating qualities."

"I knew all about the ancestry of the horse and felt sure that he could be developed into a speedy racer if driven by some one who knew his peculiarities. I made up my mind to become the owner of Sleepy Tom."

"At night when the young men were getting ready to drive home, after having had a day of it, I offered to trade them a colt and a small sum of money for their horse."

"They said they would take the colt and $25, and I told them that there was nothing doing. Well, we haggled about the deal for an hour or more when we finally came to an understanding."

"They agreed to take my colt which was only worth a few dollars, $7.50 in cash, an old English watch worth about $1.50, and a quart of the kind of stuff that it's going to be hard to buy in Ohio within a short time."

"I soon found that Sleepy Tom had all kinds of speed; but that the only way to get it out was to keep forcing him every foot of the way. You couldn't lay back a second but what Sleepy Tom would slow up."

"I had to use the horse pretty roughly in the beginning to give him to understand that I would not stand any foolishness, and once we understood each other the pacer would go like the wind."

"Sleepy Tom was blind when he won the world's record. He was 15 hands high and was the most beautiful piece of horseflesh I ever saw. There wasn't a thing about the horse that you would change if you could, so finely formed was he."

"I sold him for $30,000 and cried like a baby after I did so. I do not know why I did so. It seemed that I never had any luck after letting Tom go."

Mr. Phillips has devoted some attention to politics as well as racing. He has served two terms as sheriff of Fayette county. He became acquainted with the governor through the latter entering horses in race meets.

Mr. Phillips was accompanied to the governor's office on his visit by General W. R. Burnett, Civil war soldier, who is commandant at the Sandusky Soldiers' home. They have been friends since they were boys.

Theda Bara moving picture fans! Now is your chance to see your favorite screen artist in her latest masterpiece, "The She Devil," a William Fox production which will be shown at the Bijou Theater, Thursday matinee and night.

The name truly describes the antics to which Miss Bara resorts in this picture. She is the siren in a lazy little Spanish town and she employs all the schemes of a siren in winning the men of the village and then dropping them. Being a woman of true love that women possess, the siren eventually finds nothing to stand in her way to him. She is supported in this wonderful picture by Albert Roscoe, Frederick Bond, George A. McDaniel and others.

ORPHIUM.

Unusual, is the key word of the most interesting world film release of recent date, "The Appearance of Evil," featuring June Elvidge, which will be shown at the Orphium Theater, Thursday.

Pretty Miss Elvidge is well adapted to the role she presents in this picture and is well supported, the cast including Frank Mayo, Douglas Redmond, Jr., Clay Clement, Sr., George MacQuarrie, Nora Cecil and others. The story told in the picture is so unusual and different from the ordinary story that we are not going to spoil it for you by telling you anything about it now.

STATEROOMS.

There was an old fellow named Shreve who ran steamboats before Jackson fought the redcoats at New Orleans. In Shreve's time the cabins were curtained off just like these new-fangled sleeping-car berths. The old man built wooden rooms, and he named them after the different states, Kentucky, and Illinois and Pennsylvania. So that when a fellow came aboard he'd say: "What state am I in, Cap?" And from this remark the name stateroom has spread all over the world.

DR. R. R. MCCLELLAN RECEIVES DEGREE

Dr. Robert Reyburn McClellan of this city is among the large number of graduates of Harvard Medical School who are now receiving their degree of M. D., granted by the Harvard Corporation.

The Harvard Corporation has granted more than 100 degrees, about three-fourths of which have been awarded to members of the medical school. The large number of degrees is due to the fact that during the war the school authorities allowed the men to study during the summer, thus making their graduation possible several months ahead of the normal schedule.

Dr. McClellan, who graduated in November, is now practicing medicine in this city, having his office in the McClellan hospital, and he has already established a large clientele. He took his internship in the Massachusetts General Hospital, while completing his last year at school, and while he would normally have graduated next June, he completed his course about eight months ahead of that time.

He is a son of Dr. Ben R. McClellan, who recently was granted his discharge from the medical service, in which he held the office of captain, and who was head surgical officer of Debarcation Hospital, No. 3, New York City, at the time of receiving his discharge.

EMPHATICALLY ASSERTS WORN OUT, LAGGING MEN CAN QUICKLY BECOME VIGOROUS AND FULL OF AMBITION

7 A DAY FOR 7 DAYS

Don't blame the man who is perpetually tired; his blood needs more red corpuscles and his brain and nerves are craving for food.

Given the right kind of medicine, any tired-out, inactive, lagging fellow can quickly be made into a real live, energetic and even ambitious man.

So says a student of the nervous system who advises all men and women who feel worn out and who find it hard to get up ambition enough to take a regular job to get a package of Bio-feren at any druggist.

This is the new discovery that pharmacists are recommending because it is not expensive and speedily puts vigor and ambition into people who despaired of ever amounting to anything in life.

People whose nerves have been wrecked by too rapid living, too much tobacco or alcohol, have regained their old-time confidence and energy in less than two weeks.

No matter from what cause your nerves went back on you; no matter how run down, nervous or tired out you are, get an original package of Bio-feren, at once at Sayre & Hemphill's. Take two tablets after each meal and one before bedtime—seven a day for seven days—then one after each meal till all are gone.

Then if you still lack ambition; if your nerves are not steady and you haven't the energy that red-blooded, keen-minded men possess, your purchase money will be gladly returned.

Note to Physicians: There is no secret about the formula of Bio-feren, it is printed on every package. Here it is: Lecithin; Calcium Glycero-phosphate; Iron Peptonate; Manganese Peptonate; Ext. Nux Vomica; Powdered Gentian; Phenolphthalein; Oleoresin Capsicum; Kola. adv

Public Sales

Have your sale announced FREE in this column early, so that you may claim your date and others will stay off of it. These ads are run every day and are gratis with the large display advertising. We also furnish sale bills without charge. Let us tell you about it.

PUBLIC SALE advertising in the Gazette and Republican brings the crowds. In these days of automobiles the farmer has no time to stop along the road to read sale bills. He is coming to depend upon these papers to notify him of the sale dates and articles to be offered for sale. It's the buyer from a distance who sees your ad. in this paper, who jumps into his auto and hustles to your sale, who pays what your stuff is worth. Your neighbor no longer can stand around and pick off what he needs at an absurd price, as he does when you have not properly advertised, and gotten a good crowd. Use the Gazette and Republican if you want the worth of everything you offer. Don't try to save on your advertising.

PUBLIC SALE—April 3rd, at 12:00 o'clock, at my home on the Lower Bellbrook pike, at the corporate limits—ocean, pony, cow and calf, Chevrolet roadster, farm implements, harness, gas engine, buffet and sewing machine. Mouk & Weikert, Auctioneers. T. C. Long, Clerk. 3-28

TAKES UP CUDGEL IN DEFENSE OF YOUNG SOLDIER

A. Thompson, of rural route 6, in a letter to the editor of this paper, has taken up the cudgel in defense of Sergeant L. L. Hayes, crippled returned artilleryman of the Rainbow Division, who was rudely rebuffed at one Xenia home, when he solicited the household for a subscription to "Our Boys," a magazine published in the interest of the boys "over there."

The story of Sergeant Hayes inspired an interest in Mr. Thompson, and he is anxious to find the address of the young soldier in order to help him all he can. "I want to help him all I can," said Mr. Thompson. "I want to take the paper myself and I will get every subscription I can for him and give him every penny I get from it. I say God bless him and help him and all the other boys who helped save our country."

Mr. Thompson was also very vehement in his denunciation of the man who turned the soldier lad down. This paper however does not have the address of the young man beyond that his name is Mansfield and unless he disclosed his traveling route to some patron his present address is not known here.

PAUL WALKER SEES AVIATOR KILLED

Paul Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Walker of this city, who is operating a bus line at Sea Breeze, Florida, was one of the first to reach the wreckage of the plane in which Major Peterson fell and was killed, an account of which was carried in this paper several days ago.

In a letter to his parents, Mr. Walker said that he was nearby when the machine crashed to earth and that he was the fourth one to reach the wreckage and assist in removing the body. The unfortunate pilot was terribly crushed but the lieutenant who was in the plane also, will live, according to the latest reports.

Optimistic Thought.

DAUGHTERS OF AMERICA INITIATE LARGEST CLASS IN COUNTY HISTORY

The largest class initiation ever held in Greene county by the order of the Daughters of America, took place Tuesday evening, when a class of 53 members was received by Obedient Council, No. 100, of this city. It was also the largest class initiation of any one council, given so far this year, in the state, by the Daughters of America, and local officers are extremely proud of the record.

Marine Degree Staff of Obedient Council under Captain Coulter, put on the work in a very effective manner, and the fine appearance of the staff, and excellence of the work drew forth much commendation from the visitors.

Representatives from fourteen councils were present, as follows: Southern Ohio, Price Hill, Brighton, Violet, Daytonia, Pride of Dayton, Magnetic, Remember the Maine, Clinton No. 32, Victoria No. 91, Victory No. 61, Nora Dye No. 186, Pride of Xenia No. 140, and Obedient.

Staff officers present were: Mrs. Pauline Joest of Cincinnati, state councillor; Mrs. Florence Berry, Springfield, state council conductor; A. L. Bosson, of Cincinnati, National F. B. Department Secretary; Mrs. Carrie R. Faulkner of this city, state vice councillor, and district deputy.

Inspiring talks were given by the state officers, the work of the order being highly complimented.

State Councillor, Mrs. Joest, and the state vice councillor, Mrs. Faulkner, were each the recipient of a handsome piece of silver the gifts of Obedient Council.

The meeting will be long remembered as a great achievement in the order.

After the work, a delicious chicken supper was served to about 240 guests.

Mrs. Joest, state councillor, was the guest while in the city of Mrs. A. E. Faulkner, state vice councillor. The staff officers, Mrs. Karch, the deputy and George Smith, financial Secretary of Obedient Council, were guests at dinner at the Barton Hotel Tuesday evening of Mr. Matthew Coulter, captain of the degree team and his daughter, Miss Myrtle.

BRYAN'S WIDOW SUED FOR $5,000 BY HER LAWYER

Another angle to the Bryan will case developed in Cincinnati Tuesday when Attorney Eli G. Frankenstein filed suit against Fredericka Bryan, young widow of John Bryan, Yellow Springs millionaire poet farmer asking $5,000 for legal services in her fight to break the will of her husband. Mr. Bryan willed Riverside Park at Yellow Springs to the state of Ohio as a free speech non-religious public park.

Frankenstein was attorney for John Bryan, and preached the funeral oration at Bryan's funeral. He drew up the latter's will in which the young widow was bequeathed $100,000 to be paid at the rate of $5,000 a year until she became 40 years old, when she was to be paid the remainder. Bryan's estate is valued at $1,000,000.

Mrs. Bryan elected to take under the will and retained Frankenstein as her counsel. A member of the Union Savings Bank and trust company was named co-executor with Mrs. Bryan and exceptions were taken to the appointment, following the probate of the will.

Sensational differences are said to exist between the young widow and her counsel which are expected to be elaborated upon when the action for the recovery of the $5,000 comes to trial which will be at an early date.

MISS GEYER GIVES PARTY FOR GUEST

Miss Mary Katherine Geyer delightedly entertained the Eight Weeks Club Monday afternoon for the pleasure of her guest, Miss Marguerite Andrade, Vessaucon, France. Miss Andrade has a charming personality and the high school girls were delighted to make her acquaintance. Miss Lois Gartrell sang two solos and Miss Andrade sang "Les Marseillais" beautifully. An Eight Weeks Club for this summer was discussed and it was decided that an "Eight Weeks Club" will be formed about the first of July, with Miss Mary K. Geyer in charge as last summer.

Mrs. Geyer was at the punch bowl in the dining room. Handsome red roses were used as a center piece.

AMERICAN CASUALTY LIST ABOUT COMPLETE

Washington, March 26—America's list of battle casualties in the great war is virtually complete. The final casualties are now being published and very soon the list will include only those who have died or been injured since the armistice was signed, and any necessary changes in the listings.

Our Dependable Furniture Will Make For Contentment in the Home

Buy right—we do—you can.

"We are making the price, you are buying the goods."

Our unparalleled increase in trade volume this year, over any other since we have been in business, is attributed to the fact that we do as we advertise, and advertise as we do. We are fulfilling our slogan of selling "DEPENDABLE FURNITURE." You the people, are knowing this and appreciate the sincerity of that slogan. While our purchases for the season were exceptionally large, we find our stocks continually running low and it is only by keeping the mail and wires busy to the manufacturers—the best in the country—who are supplying us that we are able to fill the gaps made by the inroads caused by our heavy trade. The manufacturers are co-operating with us. We are making the price—you are buying the goods. "We are going over the top" in 1919.
